WOMEN SUFFER

Demolli Tells Incidents of Carbon County Strike.

MINE WORKERS DETERMINED

NATIONAL ORGANIZATION TO KEEP UP THE CONTEST.

"One case which may result seriously occurred a short time ago in Scofield," he said. "Joseph Anderlini, a miner, lived there in a house he had paid for himself. His wife was in a calicate condition. The other day she was startled to see an armed deputy. was startled to see an armed deputy sheriff at the window and another at the door. She fainted. Although it was

"At Castle Gate a short time ago two women were turned out of their homes in a snowstorm at 11 o'clock at night. Another woman was turned out in the cold at 9 o'clock at night. It is not so bad to make people leave in the foremoons, when they have a chance to find a place to stay but to invertee the cold. place to stay, but to turn them out tt night is wrong."

Demolli has been working in Colo-rado under the direction of John Mitchell. He stopped over in Carbon county on his way here.

Fight to Be Long.

"The fight has only begun," he said.
"At the recent convention of the United Mine Workers in Indianapolis the situation here was brought up and it was voted to stay with the fight until very dollar of the $1,690,000 and over in the treasury was gone, and then to levy assessments to keep up the con-test. The United Mine Workers has takes one, two, three years or more.
"At present the striking miners are living in tents at Scofield, Castle Gate and Sunnyside. As many as possible of the women and children are being provided with places in houses, but the rest are obliged to sleep in the Expects Many to Quit.

"The Utah Fuel company cannot operate its mines permanently without the aid of the United Mine Workers." The output is not so great now as it was six weeks ago. Many of the present employes are farmers, who will be uitting in the spring. Even now many are leaving because they cannot carn enough. Some of them are actually closing the month in debt to the com-

Demolli will leave for Carbon county various charges. His trial on the charges of disturbing the peace and inciting riot will come up before Judge Johnson in Price, Feb. 8.
